

CHANCE THINKS CALDWELL NEEDS GOOD WALLOPING

Houston, Tex., March 20.—Manager Frank Chance, of the New York Yankees, who are in their spring training quarters here, indicated today that he has decided to try the efficacy of a punch on the nose as a cure for "sting" Caldwell's habit of violating training rules.

The lanky pitcher was out all last night. After waiting up half the night for him, Chance declared:

"I'm going to make such an example of Caldwell that he'll not forget me until his dying day. He should be the greatest pitcher in the country if he had a grain of sense. I'll pound some sense into him, if I find him every cent of his money isn't enough. I've taken for his bunk for the last time, and I'm ready to resort to physical violence. He's going to keep in shape and pitch good ball for me or get out of baseball altogether."

Caldwell was still among the missing tonight. He was fined $20 three weeks ago and $50 today, to which will be added when Chance decides to add when they meet at the end of Caldwell's present tour.

COLD WEATHER MARS GOOD GAME

March 20.—The Boston National League team defeated the New York International here today, 5 to 2, in a seven-inning contest. Cold weather interfered with the playing of both teams.

Scores: Boston, 5; New York, 2.

Batteries: Perdue, Deane and Whaling; Telf, Holmes and O'Rourke.

UNITED HUNTS ELECTS BELMONT

New York, March 20.—At a meeting of the board of directors of the United Hunts League Association, held today, Perry Belmont was elected president. Oakleigh Thorne, first vice-president; Henry W. Hall, second vice-president; Charles L. Appleton, treasurer, and Ed. Buck, secretary.

Saturday, May 16, and Saturday, May 23, were decided upon as the dates for the spring meeting to be held at Belmont Park, Terminal, and an attractive program, including the sportsman's steepchase, handi-caps and dinner stunts, will be announced shortly.

BROWN WINS OUT IN SLOW CONTEST

New York, March 20.—Morris D. Brown, of Brooklyn, and J. Ferdinand Poggenburg, of this city, played the slowest game of the national amateur billiard tournament here today, and Brown won by 99 to 100. Although only thirty-three innings were played, the men consumed nearly four hours. The fact that the chance of either one of them for championship honors depended on the outcome was the reason both were so deliberate.

TIME EXTENDED UPON REQUEST

Bowlers May Enter for City Tourney Until Midnight—Begins Tuesday Night.

Officials of the Richmond Bowling Association granted the request of several bowlers, and again extended the time limit for receiving entries for the second annual tournament until tonight, midnight, when entries will positively close.

Because of this second extension of time the tournament will not begin Monday night, but will open on the Newport Alleys Tuesday night with two men teams and singles competing for splendid cash prizes.

Entries rolled in to Secretary Gortie yesterday, and there is every indication that the number of entries which will be filed today will bring the total two men teams from Richmond up to thirty, while there will be fifty or more entries in the individual events.

These entries do not include those from Petersburg, of which it is expected there will be twenty-two two-man teams and forty-three singles.

The schedule committee will go over the entries and arrange the schedule, which will be printed in Sunday's issue.

FRED SNODGRASS

The speedy centre fielder of the New York Giants, who is being groomed by Manager McGraw to fill the third base position left vacant by the resignation of his pal, Arthur Shaffer. Snodgrass has been starring in the practice games. He has been holding down his new position in due style, and has been one of the heaviest hitters in the Marlin camp.

TWO RECRUITS REPORT

Two recruits were added to the total of those already assembled yesterday, when Worth, of West Virginia, a catcher, and Bill Ryan, of Ohio, an outfielder, reported to Manager Ray Ryan. Snow, which covered the park, prevented the scheduled workout, and as a result everybody was kept indoors. Secretary Bradley had a corps of men at work early, and under the guidance of Parkkeeper Hines enough of the ground was cleared to admit of light work to-day, provided the weather will permit. All of the men are expected by to-night, and Monday the real work of conditioning will begin. On Friday the world champion Athletics are due here for an engagement with the Colts, and by that time Ryan is very sure that he will have a fairly accurate line on the men who will help him win a championship.

Mike Loan got in late Thursday night. He is another catcher, and one on whom Ryan is banking heavily. He weighs 175 pounds, and looks a great deal like Johnny Mace when Mace was at his best.

BASEBALL FINALLY GETS INTO COURT

Weeghman, of Chicago Feds, Asks for Restraining Order Preventing Kiliter, of Philadelphia Nationals from Playing With Dooins' Team.

Grand Rapids, Mich., March 20.—The first shot of litigation in the baseball war of 1914 was fired here to-day, when the Federal League filed a petition with the Federal Court, asking for an injunction to restrain William J. Kiliter, Jr., formerly catcher of the Philadelphia Nationals, from playing baseball with any other team than the Chicago Federals.

Kiliter signed a three-year contract with the Chicago Federals, but after-ward was persuaded that the reserve clause in his old contract with the Philadelphia club held him legally to Philadelphia, and he joined his former team. The suit involves the legality of the reserve clause, long regarded as one of the bulwarks of organized baseball.

The complaint was signed by Charles

C. C. A. Plays Howitzers

The Church Civic Association and Howitzers basketball teams will meet in the Howitzers Armory tonight in the third and deciding game for the championship of Richmond. Each quint has won a game and upon the result to-night will largely depend the state championship. A large gallery is sure to be on hand. Both teams are in splendid condition.

an expert catcher than any of the other players."

One paragraph stated "that the defendant is a baseball player, to-wit: a catcher of unique and extraordinary skill and experience, and of such personal and intellectual character, that his loss cannot be substantially compensated for by the services of some other baseball catcher."

The bill asserts the Chicago Federals would suffer irreparable loss and injury unless a restraining order is issued enjoining Kiliter from playing with clubs other than the Chicago Federals, and more particularly with the Philadelphia Nationals. Because of the absence of United States Judge Sessions from the city, it was impossible to secure a temporary restraining order as originally planned.

The prayer for this was stricken from the bill, and instead April 3 was fixed as the date for the hearing on the question of a temporary injunction.

Dooins Expresses Surprise.

Wilmington, N. C., March 20.—When informed this afternoon that application for an injunction to restrain Kiliter from playing with the Philadelphia Nationals had been filed at Grand Rapids, Charles Dooins, manager of the club, acknowledged some surprise at the action, but stated that the move had been anticipated, and his course of action had been clearly outlined by legal counsel for the club.

"We have no fear whatever of losing Kiliter, and we expect Tom Seaton to return to the club before the season opens. We shall apply for an injunction restraining him from playing with the Federals in the near future. I understand he has joined the Chicago training squad at Shreveport, La."

Samuel W. Clements, attorney for the Philadelphia club, was in conference last week with Dooins, President Baker, of the Philadelphia club, and President Toner, of the National League, when a course of action was clearly planned in anticipation of the filing of a Federal injunction, although the plans were not made public.

Kiliter states that he will not play with the Federals, even should their injunction be granted and finally settled in their favor. "I will retire from the game first," stated Kiliter, "but I do not anticipate the necessity of this for I don't think the injunction will ever be served on me. I will work in the game here tomorrow, and I will give them a chance to serve an injunction if they want to."

SNOW PUTS STOP TO OUTDOOR WORK

Lynchburg, Va., March 20.—The snow this morning drove the Pittsburgh Federal League team indoors for practice. The club tendered the club the free use of the city auditorium, and there the players romped for some hours to keep at work.
